 - (c) a shipowner assumes responsibility for the operation of a ship from another shipowner.
- (2) An interim maritime labour certificate is valid for a period not exceeding six months.

9. Renewal of certificate.

The recognised organisation may renew a maritime labour certificate, if the recognised organisation is satisfied that the ship is in compliance with the Regulations and after inspection of the ship.

10. Suspension, withdrawal or cancellation of declaration or certificate.

Notwithstanding regulations 4(2) and 5(4), the recognised organisation may, by notice in writing, suspend, withdraw or cancel a declaration of maritime compliance and a maritime labour certificate, if the shipowner fails to comply with the requirements under the Convention and these regulations, or the required corrective action has not been taken.

PART III – MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR SEAFARERS TO WORK ON A SHIP

11. Minimum age for seafarer.

- (1) Notwithstanding section 84 of the Act, a person under the age of 16 shall not be employed, engaged or work on a ship.
- (2) Notwithstanding section 84 of the Act, a person under the age of 18 shall not be employed, engaged or work on a ship where the work may jeopardize their health and safety.
- (3) The work referred to under paragraph (2) shall be determined by the Authority and specified in the Bulletin.
- (4) Notwithstanding section 84 of the Act, a seafarer under the age of 18 shall
 - (a) not be employed, engaged or work as a cook on a ship; and
 - (b) not engage in night work except the competent authority determines —
 - (i) that the effective training of a seafarer, in accordance with established programmes and schedules, may be impaired;
 - (ii) that night work is the specific nature of the duty of a seafarer;or

- (iii) that the recognised training programme requires a seafarer under the age of 18 to perform duties at night and that the work will not be detrimental to the seafarer's health or well-being.
- (5) For the purposes of this regulation, “night” means a period of at least nine hours starting no later than midnight ships time and ending no earlier than 0500 ships time.

12. Medical certificate.

- (1) A shipowner shall not permit a seafarer to work on board a ship except when that seafarer holds a valid medical certificate.
- (2) A seafarer who has been issued a medical certificate shall carry that certificate on board during that seafarer's employment on the ship.
- (3) The competent authority may permit the seafarer to be examined by a medical referee, where—
 - (a) a medical practitioner issues a medical certificate with restrictions imposed on the seafarer's ability to work; or
 - (b) a medical practitioner refuses to issue a medical certificate to the seafarer.
- (4) The medical certificate issued under paragraph (1) shall —
 - (a) be in accordance with the STCW Convention and where seafarers are not covered by the STCW Convention, the medical certificate shall have similar requirements;
 - (b) state that the seafarer's hearing, sight and the colour vision, where colour vision is a requirement for the work to be performed, are satisfactory; and
 - (c) state that the seafarer is not suffering from any medical condition that may
 - (i) be affected by sea service;
 - (ii) render the seafarer unfit for sea service; or
 - (iii) endanger the health of persons on board the ship.
- (5) The competent authority may in urgent cases, permit a seafarer to work without a valid medical certificate until the next port of call, where the seafarer may obtain a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner, provided that —

- (a) the period of such permission does not exceed three months; and
 - (b) the seafarer holds a medical certificate that expired within a six month period.
- (6) If the period of validity of a medical certificate expires during the course of the voyage, the medical certificate shall continue in force until the next port of call where the seafarer may obtain a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner, provided that the period shall not exceed three months.
- (7) Except a shorter period is required by the seafarer's duties or is required under the STCW Convention —
- (a) a medical certificate shall be valid for a period of two years except the seafarer is under the age of 18, in which case the maximum period of validity shall be one year;
 - (b) a certification of colour vision shall be valid for a period of six years.
- (8) A medical certificate for a seafarer working on a ship ordinarily engaged on international voyages shall be written in English.

13. Training and qualifications.

- (1) A seafarer shall not be permitted to work on a ship except that seafarer —
- (a) has successfully completed training for personal safety;
 - (b) is trained or certified as competent or otherwise qualified to perform the seafarer's duties.
- (2) The training and certification requirements under paragraph (1) shall be in accordance with the Merchant Shipping (Training, Certification, Manning and Watchkeeping) Regulations, 2011, or any other relevant law.

14. Recruitment and placement services.

- (1) A seafarer recruitment and placement service shall —

- (a) maintain, and make available for inspection by the Director of Labour, an up-to-date register of all seafarers recruited or placed by the service;
 - (b) ensure that seafarers are informed of the seafarer's rights and duties under the seafarer's employment agreement prior to the seafarer's engagement;
 - (c) make proper arrangements for a seafarer to examine the seafarer's employment agreement prior to, and after the seafarer's employment agreement is signed;
 - (d) provide each seafarer with a copy of the seafarer's employment agreement;
 - (e) verify that seafarers recruited or placed by that service are qualified and hold the appropriate qualifications for the position;
 - (f) verify that the seafarer's employment agreement is in accordance with the relevant law and any collective bargaining agreement which forms a part of the employment agreement;
 - (g) ensure, as far as practicable, that the shipowner has the means to protect seafarers from being stranded in a foreign port;
 - (h) examine and respond to any complaint concerning the seafarers recruited and placed by the service and advise the Director of Labour of unresolved complaints;
 - (i) establish a system of protection, by way of insurance or an equivalent appropriate measure.
- (2) No person shall impose fees or other charges on a seafarer for recruiting, placing or providing employment to the seafarer, except the cost of —
- (a) obtaining a medical certificate;
 - (b) a seafarer's record book;
 - (c) a passport, or other travel documents, excluding the cost of visas; or
 - (d) any training required for a particular position.
- (3) No seafarer recruitment or placement service shall use any means, mechanisms or lists intended to prevent or deter any person from gaining employment for which they are qualified.
- (4) Where the shipowner of a Bahamian registered ship employs a seafarer recruitment and placement service in a country or territory in which the Convention does not apply, the shipowner shall ensure that those services meet the requirements under this regulation.

PART IV – CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

15. Seafarers' Employment Agreements.

- (1) Notwithstanding sections 80 to 83 of the Act, a shipowner shall enter into a seafarers' employment agreement with a seafarer whom the shipowner employs, engages or works on board the ship, and the shipowner and seafarer shall each have a signed original of the seafarers' employment agreement.
 - (2) The seafarers' employment agreement shall be signed by the seafarer and the shipowner or a representative of the shipowner, and a copy of the seafarer employment agreement shall be accessible for review by the authorised officers.
 - (3) A seafarer shall be permitted to examine and seek advice on the seafarers' employment agreement prior to signing the agreement.
 - (4) Where a seafarer is not an employee, the shipowner shall enter into contractual or similar arrangements to that of the seafarers' employment agreement under paragraph (1).
 - (5) A shipowner shall ensure that clear information as to the conditions of the seafarer's employment can be easily obtained on board the ship by the seafarer.
 - (6) A shipowner or master shall ensure that every seafarer is given a document containing a record of the seafarer's employment on board the ship and that document shall not contain any statement as to the quality of the seafarer work or their wages.
 - (7) The form of the document referred to under paragraph (6), the particulars to be recorded and the manner in which such particulars are to be entered shall be specified in the Bulletin.
 - (8) Where the language of the seafarers' employment agreement and any applicable collective bargaining agreement is not in English, the following documents shall be available in English —
 - (a) a copy of a standard form of the agreement; and

- (b) the portions of the collective bargaining agreement that are subject to a port State inspection.
- (9) The seafarers' employment agreement shall contain the following particulars —
- (a) the seafarer's full name, date of birth or age, and birthplace;
 - (b) the shipowner's name and address;
 - (c) the place where and date when the seafarers' employment agreement is entered into;
 - (d) the capacity in which the seafarer is to be employed;
 - (e) the amount of the seafarer's wages or, where applicable, the formula used for calculating them;
 - (f) the amount of paid annual leave or, where applicable, the formula used for calculating it;
 - (g) the termination of the agreement and the conditions thereof, including —
 - (i) if the agreement has been made for an indefinite period, the conditions entitling either party to terminate it, as well as the required notice period, which shall not be less for the shipowner than for the seafarer;
 - (ii) if the agreement has been made for a definite period, the date fixed for its expiry; and
 - (iii) if the agreement has been made for a voyage, the port of destination and the time which has to expire after arrival before the seafarer should be discharged;
 - (h) the health and social security protection benefits to be provided to the seafarer by the shipowner;
 - (i) the seafarer's entitlement to repatriation;
 - (j) reference to the collective bargaining agreement, if applicable; and
 - (k) any other particulars which Bahamian law may require.
- (10) Where a collective bargaining agreement forms all or a part of a seafarers' employment agreement, a copy of that agreement shall be available on board the ship.
- (11) For the purposes of this regulation, the minimum period of notice required to be given by the seafarer and shipowner for the early termination of a seafarers' employment agreement shall be seven days except in exceptional circumstances, a seafarer may give a shorter notice period.

- (12) A shipowner or master who contravenes the provisions of this regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding  dollars.

16. Wages.

- (1) A seafarer shall be paid on a monthly basis in accordance with the seafarer's employment agreement and any applicable collective agreement.
- (2) A seafarer shall be given a monthly account of the payments due and the amounts paid, including wages, additional payments and the rate of exchange used where payment has been made in a currency or at a rate different from that agreed, including any deductions.
- (3) A shipowner shall establish a system for enabling a seafarer, at the time of the seafarer entering employment or during it, to allot, if they so desire, a proportion of their wages for remittance at regular intervals to their families by bank transfers or similar means.
- (4) An allotment referred to under paragraph (3) shall be remitted in due time and directly to the person nominated by the seafarer.
- (5) Any charge for the service under paragraph (3) shall be reasonable in amount, and the rate of currency exchange, unless otherwise provided, shall be at the prevailing market rate or the official published rate and not unfavourable to the seafarer and shall comply with the relevant law.
- (6) A shipowner who contravenes the provisions of this regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding  dollars.

17. Hours of rest.

- (1) A master shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that the minimum number of hours of rest shall be observed for seafarers.
- (2) The minimum hours of rest shall be not less than ten hours in any 24-hour period and 77 hours in any seven-day period.
- (3) The hours of rest referred to under paragraph (2) may be divided into no more than two periods, one of which shall be at least six hours in length, and the interval between consecutive periods of rest shall not exceed 14 hours.

- (4) Musters, fire-fighting and lifeboat drills, and mandatory drills, shall be conducted in a manner that minimizes the disturbance of rest periods and does not induce fatigue.
 - (5) A seafarer shall have adequate compensatory rest periods, where that seafarer is on call and the seafarer normal period of rest is disturbed by call-outs to work.
 - (6) If no collective agreement or arbitration award exists or if the competent authority determines that the provisions in the agreement or award in respect of paragraph 6 or 7 are inadequate, the competent authority shall determine such provisions to ensure that the seafarers concerned have sufficient rest.
 - (7) A table with the shipboard working arrangements shall be posted in an easily accessible place on board the ship and the table shall contain, for every position at least —
 - (a) the schedule of service at sea and service in port; and
 - (b) the minimum hours of rest required under paragraph (2).
 - (8) The table referred to under paragraph (7), shall be in the form approved by the competent authority and in the working language of the ship and in English.
 - (9) A shipowner shall —
 - (a) maintain a record of a seafarer's daily hours of rest, in the form determined by the Authority and in the working language of the ship and in English; and
 - (b) give the seafarer a copy of the record pertaining to the seafarer's daily hours of rest, endorsed by the master, or a designate and the seafarer.
 - (10) The Authority, in consultation with the Director of Labour may authorise or register collective agreements permitting exceptions to the limits set out therein.
 - (11) Without prejudice to the preceding paragraphs, a master may required a seafarer, including a young seafarer, to exceed the scheduled duty periods, where in the opinion of the master it is necessary in an emergency threatening the safety of the ship or any person on board the ship or damage to cargo or for the purpose of giving assistance to other ships or persons in distress at sea.

- (12) For the purposes of this regulation —
- (a) “hours of work” means time during which seafarers are required to do work on account of the ship;
 - (b) “hours of rest” means time outside hours of work; this term does not include short breaks.
- (13) A shipowner who contravenes the provisions of this regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding  dollars.

18. Annual Leave.

- (1) A shipowner shall give annual leave, as provided under paragraph (3) to seafarers upon the completion of each twelve months of employment.
- (2) A shipowner shall give shore leave to seafarers.
- (3) Subject to any collective agreement providing for an appropriate method of calculation that takes account of the special needs of seafarers in this respect, the annual leave with pay entitlement shall be calculated on the basis of a minimum of 2.5 calendar days per month of employment.
- (4) An agreement to forgo the minimum annual leave with pay under paragraph (3), except in cases provided for by the Director of Labour, is prohibited.
- (5) Annual leave with pay entitlements shall be calculated on the basis set out in the Bulletin.
- (6) A shipowner who contravenes paragraphs (1) and (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding  dollars.

19. Repatriation.

- (1) A shipowner shall repatriate a seafarer at no cost to the seafarer —
- (a) where the seafarers’ employment agreement expires while the seafarer is abroad;
 - (b) upon the expiry of the period of notice given in accordance with the provisions of the seafarers’ employment agreement, where the seafarers’ employment agreement is terminated —

- (i) by the shipowner; or
 - (ii) by the seafarer for justified reasons;
 - (c) where the seafarer is no longer able to carry out the seafarer's duties under the employment agreement or cannot be expected to carry out the duties in the specific circumstances.
- (2) A shipowner shall
- (a) not require a seafarer to make an advance payment towards the cost of repatriation at the beginning of the seafarer's employment; and
 - (b) not recover the cost of repatriation from the seafarers' wages or other entitlements,
- except, the seafarer has been found, to be in serious default of the seafarer's employment obligations under the law or collective bargaining agreements.
- (3) A shipowner of a Bahamian flag ship shall provide the recognised organisation with evidence of financial security to ensure that seafarers are duly repatriated.
- (4) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraphs, a shipowner may recover the cost of repatriation under third-party contractual arrangements.
- (5) Where a shipowner fails to make arrangements for, or to meet, the cost of repatriation of seafarers —
- (a) the Authority will arrange for repatriation of the seafarers;
 - (b) costs incurred in repatriating seafarers shall be recoverable from the shipowner;
 - (c) the expenses of repatriation shall in no case be a charge upon the seafarers, except as provided in paragraph (2);
 - (d) the ship or other ships of the shipowner may be detained by the Authority until the reimbursement has been made.
- (6) A copy of this regulation, written in English, shall be carried on board a Bahamian flag ship and shall be available to seafarers.
- (5) Subject to paragraph (5), a shipowner who contravenes the provisions of this regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding * dollars.

20. Seafarer compensation for the ship's loss or foundering.

A shipowner shall compensate the seafarer for injury, loss or unemployment, where a ship is lost or has foundered.

21. Manning levels.

- (1) A ship shall have a sufficient number of seafarers on board.
- (2) A ship shall be manned in accordance with the safe manning document issued under the Merchant Shipping (Training, Certification, Manning and Watchkeeping) Regulations, 2011 (“the regulations”) and ships to which the requirements of the regulations does not apply, shall be manned by seafarers as determined by the Authority.
- (3) A shipowner who contravenes the provisions of this regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding * dollars.

PART V – ACCOMMODATION, RECREATIONAL FACILITIES, FOOD AND CATERING

22. Accommodation and recreational facilities.

- (1) A shipowner shall provide and maintain safe and decent accommodations and recreational facilities for seafarers working or living on board the ship.
 - (2) For the purposes of these regulations, a ship —
 - (a) constructed before the date of entry into force of the Convention shall comply with the relevant provisions of the Merchant Shipping (Crew Accommodation) Regulations, 1978;
 - (b) shall be deemed to have been constructed on the date when its keel is laid or when it is at a similar stage of construction.
 - (3) The master or a designate shall —
 - (a) inspect the crew accommodation at intervals not exceeding 7 days;
 - (b) be accompanied by a minimum of one member of the crew during the inspection of the crew accommodation; and
 - (c) cause to be entered in the ship's official log book —

- (i) the time and date of the inspection,
 - (ii) the names and ranks of the persons conducting the inspection, and
 - (iii) the particulars of the crew accommodation or any part of it that is not compliant with these regulations or any other relevant law;
- (4) The ship's official log book shall be made available for review by an authorised officer.
- (5) For the purposes of these regulations — (a) a ship shall be design and constructed so that —
- (i) where full and free movement is necessary, the seafarer's accommodation, shall have a clear headroom 203 centimetres or more [provided that the Authority may permit reduction in headroom in any space, or part of any space, in such accommodation where it is satisfied that such reduction is reasonable and will not result in discomfort to the seafarers];
 - (ii) the accommodation shall be adequately insulated;
 - (iii) in ships other than passenger ships, sleeping rooms shall be situated above the load line amidships or aft, except that in exceptional cases, where the size, type or intended service of the ship renders any other location impracticable, sleeping rooms may be located in the fore part of the ship, but in no case forward of the collision bulkhead;
 - (iv) in a passenger ship, and in a special purpose ship, the Authority may, on condition that satisfactory arrangements are made for lighting and ventilation, permit the location of sleeping rooms below the load line, but in no case shall they be located immediately beneath working alleyways;
 - (v) there shall be no direct openings into sleeping rooms from cargo and machinery spaces or from galleys, storerooms, drying rooms or communal sanitary areas; that part of a bulkhead separating such places from sleeping rooms and external bulkheads shall be efficiently constructed of steel or other approved substance and be watertight and gas-tight;

- (vi) the materials used to construct internal bulkheads, panelling and sheeting, floors and joinings shall be suitable for the purpose and conducive to ensuring a healthy environment;
 - (vii) proper lighting and sufficient drainage shall be provided;
 - (viii) accommodation and recreational and catering facilities shall meet the requirements set out in regulation 26 on health and safety protection and accident prevention, with respect to preventing the risk of exposure to hazardous levels of noise and vibration and other ambient factors and chemicals on board ships, and to provide an acceptable occupational and on-board living environment for seafarers;
 - (ix) a ship regularly trading to mosquito infested ports shall be fitted with appropriate devices.
- (b) with regards to ventilation and heating —
- (i) sleeping rooms and mess rooms shall be adequately ventilated;
 - (ii) ships shall be equipped with air conditioning for seafarer accommodation, for any separate radio room and for any
 - (iii) centralized machinery control room, except those regularly engaged in trade where temperate climatic conditions do not require this;
 - (iv) all sanitary spaces shall have ventilation to the open air, independently of any other part of the accommodation; and
 - (v) adequate heat through an appropriate heating system shall be provided, except in ships exclusively on voyages in tropical climates.
- (c) with regards to lighting —
- (i) subject to such special arrangements as may be permitted by the Authority for passenger ships, sleeping rooms and mess rooms shall be lit by natural light and provided with adequate artificial light;
 - (ii) all seafarer accommodation shall comply with the standards of natural and artificial lighting specified in the Merchant Shipping (Crew Accommodation) Regulations, 1978.
- (d) with regards to sanitary facilities —

- (i) a seafarer shall have convenient access on the ship to sanitary facilities meeting minimum standards of health and hygiene and reasonable standards of comfort, with separate sanitary facilities being provided for men and women;
 - (ii) there shall be sanitary facilities within easy access of the navigating bridge and the machinery space or near the engine room control centre;
 - (iii) in a ship a minimum of one toilet, one wash basin and one tub or shower or both for every six persons or less who do not have personal facilities shall be provided at a convenient location;
 - (iv) with the exception of a passenger ship, each sleeping room shall be provided with a washbasin having hot and cold running fresh water, except where such a washbasin is situated in a private bathroom;
